SINGLE SPICES AND HERBS

It is not possible to imagine Polish cuisine without marjoram or Greek cuisine without oregano. Herb seasonings form the base for European dishes. They are key, aromatic ingredients for soups, salads and meat, fish or vegetable meals. They allow not only the emphasis of natural flavour but also help with beneficial processes in the digestive system. Their power derives completely from nature, which guarantees the natural full flavour and aroma every time.

BREADCRUMBS

AND FRIED ONION

Breadcrumbs are a simple, yet indispensable ingredient in the art of cooking. Used for breading (also known as crumbing) various types of fried meats and vegetables. Adhered to such with the aid of plain flour and egg, produces a perfectly crisp, golden finish. Prymat fried onion makes an aromatic and tasty addition to many dishes. With unlimited uses in the kitchen, it is suitable for both meat and vegetables. It wonderfully underlines the flavours of fish, potatoes, hamburgers, pizzas, hot dogs and hot or cold sandwiches and salads. In Poland it is often used to coat dumplings and noodles. Ideally fried, crispy with a golden colour, it tastes just exceptional.
